YOUR GUIDE TO UNFORGETTABLE
BUSINESS EVENTS IN TARANAKI.

Bowl of Brooklands Stage

WHY TARANAKI?

Delight your conference delegates by choosing to hold your next event in vibrant Taranaki. Taranaki has plenty of long sun-filled days to keep the soul happy. When it comes to delivering memorable and seamless conferences and events, and leaving delegates inspired and impressed, Taranaki doesn't disappoint.

Take innovative architecture, vibrant arts and culture, a bustling restaurant and café scene, and pair this with wide open spaces, a dynamic coastal location, and a majestic mountain, and you have Taranaki. Not to mention the welcoming locals ready to display manaakitanga to visitors. Taranaki is turning the heads of conference organisers who are looking for new, unforgettable locations to act as the ultimate backdrop to their events. You could say there has never been a better time to hold your convention in Taranaki. How about adding value to your next conference by aligning the timing with one of Taranaki's epic events?

Let us surprise and delight you with what the region has to offer: unique, breath-taking venues, excellent accommodation options within walking distance of the main conference location, and memorable experiences for delegates and accompanying partners.

Combine all of this with the experienced and professional conference organisers at the recommended venues, and a solutions-driven and committed team at the region's Regional Development Agency, Te Puna Umanga Venture Taranaki, and you have the recipe for an outstanding event.

- Stunning scenery, and natural landscapes
- Diverse and affordable venues and accommodation options
- Daily flights to Christchurch, Auckland, and Wellington
- Accessible by road
- Easy to get around
- Exceptional food and beverage offering, and visitor experiences for delegates to stay and play a little longer.

TOTALLY ACCESSIBLE

It's easy to get to Taranaki. New Plymouth Airport, which won gold at the Designers Institute of New Zealand Best Design Awards, is a short 50-minute direct flight from Auckland and Wellington, and a 90-min flight from Christchurch. Air New Zealand schedules regular daily flights into New Plymouth.

Taranaki is just a scenic drive away from many more parts of the country. New Plymouth is a 4.5-hour picturesque drive from either Auckland or Wellington, with numerous spots to refuel with good coffee, or discover points of interest along the way. It's around 3.5 hours' drive to Rotorua or Taupō, 3 hours to Hamilton or Palmerston North, and 4 hours to Tauranga.

OUT AND ABOUT IN TARANAKI

While you're in Taranaki, make the most of the wide open spaces, spectacular sights, sounds, adventures and tastes on offer. Whether you have just half an hour spare or a whole weekend, there's plenty to make your trip unforgettable. We've listed a few itinerary ideas, but if you are looking for more options, pick up our Taranaki Insider's Guide from your local iSITE or at taranaki.co.nz/visit.

NATURE

- Taranaki is a nature lover's paradise. Explore on your own or take a tour with Discover Taranaki, and experience exclusive access to some of Taranaki's most interesting people and places through a comprehensive selection of high-end package tours that showcase the region's unique stories and personalities. A range of 'Taranaki tasters' – unique half- and single-day tours including guided walks, garden tours, agri-tours or art and cooking classes – offer a fantastic introduction to the region and are designed for the fit visitor. Larger multi-day tours are also available that allow visitors a more in-depth experience of the region. discovertaranaki.nz
- Climb aboard a refurbished lifeboat and explore seal colonies, a marine reserve and the Sugar Loaf Islands with Chaddy's Charters. The tour takes one hour, and fishing charters are also available. chaddyscharters.co.nz
- There are many opportunities to explore magnificent Taranaki Maunga, from the Department of Conservation Visitor Centre at North Egmont to board-walked routes, to the sacred water source at Wilkies Pools, or more intrepid hikes into the pristine alpine environment, and the much-touted Pouākai Crossing, a stunning one-day walk featuring magnificent vistas.
- Located just moments from New Plymouth's CBD, the expansive Pukekura Park offers conference delegates everything from an early-morning run destination to a beautifully scenic coffee spot. Or take a drive and visit one of the many stunning gardens throughout the region including Tūpare, Hollard and Pukeiti, where guided tours for any size of group can be arranged.
- On the slopes of Taranaki, discover and wonder at the beauty of the world-class rhododendron collection held at Pukeiti garden. Rhododendrons cover 27 hectares of this 360-hectare rainforest park where you can find views of the Tasman Sea, Kaitake and Pouākai mountain ranges along many garden walkways to choose from. Pukeiti is highly regarded as one of the top gardens nationwide; this local treasure offers a range of half-day hikes that are accessible 24/7. trc.govt.nz/gardens/pukeiti

- From Egmont Village, drive towards Taranaki Maunga to the end of Egmont Road and learn more about the mountain by stopping at the North Egmont Visitor Centre. The road end is about 30km from New Plymouth.
- Make the most of our 20 golf courses in Taranaki, each with magnificent surroundings and stunning views. A great activity for a group, or just an individual getaway.

ARTS AND CULTURE

- There are many art galleries in Taranaki that are worth visiting. Govett-Brewster Art Gallery/Len Lye Centre, Percy Thomson and Lysaght Watt Gallery are just a few of what is on offer. A guided tour at the Len Lye Centre, New Zealand's only contemporary art museum, is a great way to learn about Len Lye, one of New Zealand's most influential international artists.
- Drive to Te Rewa Rewa Bridge and walk along the New Plymouth Coastal Walkway until you spot Len Lye's Wind Wand, plus a range of interesting sculptural art pieces along the way. This should take about an hour return, or half an hour if you can arrange transportation to retrieve you at the Wind Wand.
- Explore the Coastal Arts Trail with more than 60 stops across the lower west coast of the North Island, including more than 30 stops in Taranaki. Discover the unique artistic pulse of the region and the vibrant and diverse artists and galleries that call it home. coastalartstrail.nz
- Keep an eye out for concerts and shows at our many magnificent venues to complete your Taranaki experience. From live concerts featuring some of New Zealand's top music artists at the Bowl of Brooklands to musicals and performances at the TSB Showplace, you'll be spoilt for choice! taranaki.co.nz/visit

HERITAGE AND HISTORY

- Puke Ariki, New Plymouth's waterfront museum, library and information space showcases the region's history, from volcanic inception to the modern day, the Taranaki land wars and a century and a half of pioneering innovation. Puke Ariki offers a fascinating historical walk through central New Plymouth with an experienced local guide. Covering key historical events, anecdotes and extremely colourful pioneering characters from the first settler's arrival in 1841 through to the early 1900s, the 90-minute walk chronicles the turbulent past of New Plymouth city. pukeariki.com
- Head out to Tawhiti Museum and Traders and Whalers – New Zealand's best private museum, and see the work of creator and artist Nigel Ogle. It features a world-class boat ride in the Traders and Whalers portion where you can experience what life was like in Taranaki in the early 1800s. The museum is about an hour drive south of New Plymouth in Hāwera. tawhitimuseum.co.nz
- Drive out to Whangamōmona along the Forgotten World Highway and enjoy New Zealand's first heritage trail, where early pioneers tried and failed to tame the New Zealand bush. Whangamōmona is just over an hour drive east from New Plymouth. taranaki.co.nz/visit
- Bridging both Ruapehu and Taranaki regions, Forgotten World Adventures follows the remarkable Forgotten World Highway, New Zealand's oldest heritage trail, along an abandoned railway line, travelling over bridges, through tunnels and along old pioneering routes. The route can be explored via a 2-, 4- or 6-man Rail Cart or pedalled on a RailBike. forgottenworldadventures.co.nz
- See New Zealand's oldest wooden artefacts at Aotea Utanganui in Pātea. museumofsouthtaranaki.wordpress.com
- Unique to New Zealand is the Hillsborough Holden Museum. This is an immaculately displayed personal collection of Holden cars and memorabilia ranging from 1949 to the latest models. A special feature is the 18-hole mini-putt course modelled on the legendary Mount Panorama race track. hillsboroughholdenmuseum.co.nz
