NAU MAI, HAERE MAI

For more information about the region
like no other, see
taranaki.co.nz/visit

From the mythical volcanic cone of Taranaki Maunga to the ancient pā sites that mark the region's hilltops, to the innovation of its residents, Taranaki is home to countless great stories, which are best told through its many museums and galleries. As you work your way around our museums and galleries, you'll discover that the people of Taranaki are passionate not only about collecting, but about sharing the region's history and its many fascinating stories.

NEW PLYMOUTH DISTRICT

With a diverse range of outstanding cafes and restaurants, fringed by the coastal walkway and sparkly seascape, New Plymouth offers a lively cosmopolitan base for exploring the many museums and galleries of North Taranaki. For more information including opening hours, entry fees, addresses and websites, see taranaki.co.nz/visit.

1. The Govett-Brewster Art Gallery/Len Lye Centre

This leading New Zealand contemporary art gallery presents three exhibitions annually, focusing on the art of New Zealand and countries of the Pacific Rim.

2. Puke Ariki

Promoting the heritage of Taranaki with exciting themed temporary exhibitions plus four permanent exhibitions exploring the region's past, present and future – telling the stories of the people and the region through displays, technology, and multi-media.

3. The Gables Colonial Hospital North Taranaki Art Society (Inc) Gallery

Located within the historic 1848-built Gables Colonial Hospital, the Gallery offers an ever-changing programme.

4. Lumen Studios & Gallery

An artist-run space based at the old Cheese Factory in Tataraimaka. Resident artists include Teresa Goodin and Alice Cowdrey while also showcasing artists and makers from Taranaki.

5. The White Sail Gallery

This gallery features the work of local and national artists, potters and sculptors.

6. Gover St Gallery

An independent, not-for-profit community art gallery showcasing over 120 artists. The gallery highlights the wide and varied work Taranaki artists have to offer.

7. The Collaboration

A gallery, design and workshop space. Curated exhibitions are hosted every six weeks and displays from local and NZ businesses are regularly rotated.

8. Fun Ho! National Toy Museum

View 3,000 toys on display along with interactive activities and the chance to see a toy being made by the toymaker. You may even get to take part in the process!

9. Kina NZ Design + Art Space

This contemporary design store features glass art, ceramics, jewellery, sculpture, prints, paintings and various homewares. Each month Kina's gallery features a new exhibition of work by established and emerging artists.

10. Kingsroy

Dedicated to showcasing New Zealand artists there is a showroom for visitors to interact with art, objects and jewellery.

11. Koru on Devon Gallery

Features a range of exhibition spaces showcasing recent works by leading local artists. With a monthly changeout, the gallery features solo exhibitions and group shows including guest artists from across New Zealand.

12. Vicarage Pottery

A potters' collective within the historic Te Henui Vicarage building. Find fabulous pieces ranging from artistic to domestic ware and a wide variety of clay forms including earthenware, stoneware and porcelain.

13. The Art Loft

Head through the small doorway next to the ANZ ATM and up the creaky stairs to be surprised by the large airy room reminiscent of a New York loft, the perfect space to enjoy some art from painters, photographers, and printmakers. Exhibitions also include pottery, sculpture and works by other artists.

14. TATATM (Taranaki Aviation Transport and Technology Museum)

Preserving Taranaki's past for the enjoyment of future generations, providing hands-on fun and learning for the whole family including early radio and recording techniques, a telephone exchange and much more.

A private collection of Holden cars and memorabilia, including meticulously restored early Holdens through to late model cars. Onsite is also a mini-putt golf course, luge and cafe.

16. TSB Bank Bowls New Zealand Museum

This is the only registered museum in the world dedicated to the game of bowls. Discover a wealth of bowling memorabilia from over 48 countries.

17. Maketawa Museum

A collection of John Deere tractors from 1935 to 1959. The still growing collection started from a passion for John Deere and is one of the bigger collections in New Zealand.

18. Mōkau Museum

This museum has amassed a remarkable collection of items spanning the natural history of North Taranaki, both Māori and Pākehā settlement, and the area's industries.

19. New Plymouth street and public art

New Plymouth is a dynamic destination when it comes to street and public art. In any direction around town, you'll find graffiti works by well-known local, national and international artists, while public sculptures adorn the central city and New Plymouth Coastal Walkway, giving a glimpse into the city's rich arts and culture scene.

STRATFORD DISTRICT

Located in the heart of Taranaki, the town of Stratford is indelibly linked to its namesake Stratford-upon-Avon, famous for being the home of William Shakespeare. The works of that town's favourite son are immortalised in Stratford through street names, parks and the distinctive Glocksenspiel Clock Tower, which performs passages from the Great Bard's Romeo and Juliet at 10am, 1pm, 3pm and 7pm daily.

20. Percy Thomson Gallery

The award-winning gallery provides a diverse programme of ever-changing exhibitions of national and international touring shows, regional exhibitions and work by both established and emerging local artists and community groups.

21. Taranaki Pioneer Village

A unique opportunity to experience an outdoor museum presenting the life of Taranaki pioneers in the 19th and 20th centuries. There is also a railway line encircling the property and an onsite café.

22. Percy's Place

The boutique art shop of the Percy Thomson Gallery features a revolving selection of new work from Taranaki artists available for purchase.

23. Fenton Street Art Collective

This gallery is into ART in a big way: the art of coffee; the art of art and the art of distilling. The owners have created a gallery space that offers great coffee and boutique small batch gin.

SOUTH TARANAKI DISTRICT

The district is home to several high standard museums and galleries including the remarkable Tawhiti Museum and Traders & Whalers, regarded as one of the best private museum in the country. The many towns of South Taranaki offer cozy cafés and a delightfully eclectic array of shops, studios, parks and gardens in which to re-energise after a day of exploring the district's museums and galleries.

24. Aotea Utanganui Museum of South Taranaki

This museum is home to significant collections including the earliest dated wooden artefacts found in New Zealand. The Museum plays an active role within the community through the preservation of its heritage collections.

25. Tawhiti Museum and Traders & Whalers

Widely acclaimed as one of the most innovative museums in New Zealand, Tawhiti Museum uses life-size exhibits and scale models to capture the past in a series of super-realistic displays. Adjacent is Traders & Whalers a unique and innovative historical canal boat ride through the coastal life of Taranaki from the 1820s to the 1840s.
